

FEDERATION CIRCULAR

18/11

27 October 2011

POLICE ARBITRATION TRIBUNAL

A date has now been set for the Police Arbitration Tribunal hearing after failure to agree at the Police Negotiating Board on the Winsor proposals. The date set is the 8th November, it should be noted that the Home Secretary can overrule the findings of the Tribunal, the last occasion this power was used led to the march by 25,000 officers for fair pay for police.
